Reports by the officers of the Association will be included on the meeting agenda. Also on the agenda will be a vote by the members on the nominees for the Board of Directors for terms expiring at the Annual Members Meeting in 2028, as well as an amendment of the Association's Articles of Incorporation. Martha Gilmer, President and CEO, will give an update on the State of the Symphony as well as share her thoughts on the year to come.

The San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association is a nonprofit public benefit corporation formed under the laws of the State of California. The directors serve "classified terms" which means that, in order to assure continuity or experience on the Board, up to eight are to be elected at each Annual Members Meeting. As of this date, the Board of Directors has nominated the following slate of candidates for election as directors:

Anthony C. Boganey, M.D., FACS
Julia Brown
David R. Snyder, Esq.
Frank Vizcarra

Respectfully,
The San Diego Symphony Association
Board of Directors
